Please leave this leaflet on the table in the entryway narthex to be reused.

Please participate in our service in whatever way you feel comfortable. Invitations to stand, kneel, or sit, are included in the text. Congregational responses are found in bold.

Children are welcome to attend church school (off the first Sunday of the month when we all worship together with a children’s sermon) or use the resources in the front left corner of the nave, and the nursery will be open for parent/guardian-supervised play (with live streaming of the liturgy).

Please note that our worship is live-streamed. In the regular course of the service, attendees will not be visible, except at communion. If you do not wish to appear, please let an usher know and we will bring the sacrament to you at your seat. Also, please note that if you are near a camera, your audio may be broadcast.

OPENING ACCLAMATION

Celebrant Alleluia. Christ is risen.

People The Lord is risen indeed. Alleluia.

The Celebrant says the Collect for Purity (BCP 355).

GLORIA S-280

Glory to God in the highest, and peace to his people on earth.

Lord God, heavenly King, almighty God and Father,

we worship you, we give you thanks,

we praise you for your glory.

Lord Jesus Christ, only Son of the Father,

Lord God, Lamb of God,

you take away the sin of the world; have mercy on us;

you are seated at the right hand of the Father;

receive our prayer.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit,

in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

THE COLLECT OF THE DAY

SERMON

Please stand as you are comfortable for our confession of faith.

THE NICENE CREED

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father. Through him all things were made.

For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven: by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary, and was made man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried.

On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son. With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified. He has spoken through the Prophets.

We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

The people kneel or are seated.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

The people sing "Gracious Lord, hear us, we pray" after each prayer.

God of eternity, comfort us who mourn. As we celebrate with joy the resurrection of your son, let us honor those whom we love who are also now with you and Christ.

God of lovingkindness, we rejoice with those who rejoice, and weep with those who weep. For [...] who celebrate a birthday this week and [...] who celebrate an anniversary. As you raised Christ from the darkness of the tomb to your everlasting light, let us also rise from our darkness into the light of your peace. We lift up those entrusted to the St. Andrew's Prayer list and all those we name now, either silently or aloud.

Gracious Lord, hear us, we pray

God of all, we pray for mutual reconciliation and loving concern. Help us to heal the divisions among us. Let the light of Easter's resurrection enlighten us to better perceive Christ both in our neighbors and in those we might prefer to avoid. Help us to learn to love each other as you love us.

Gracious Lord, hear us, we pray

God of grace, bless local and world leaders with wisdom and tolerance. May diplomacy and respect for human rights prevail over self-interest and nationalism. Bless and guide all people to work towards respect, compassion, and public service.

Gracious Lord, hear us, we pray

God of the prophets, pour your mercy on those impacted by natural disaster, conflict, poverty, and oppression. Bless those who are poor, those who hunger and thirst, weep and mourn, that the last shall be first, and the first shall be last. For St. Andrew's Mission and Outreach Concerns, we pray for [...]

Gracious Lord, hear us, we pray

God of love, just as the persons of your Trinity are united by love, direct our hearts to love one another genuinely and fully, including those most difficult to love. Sustain your universal Church and bless and empower Bp. Ketlen, Presiding Bp. Sean, and all church leaders that they model Christ's love, truth and justice. In our diocese, we pray for [...].

Gracious Lord, hear us, we pray

God of abundance, we rejoice in the vast richness of your creation: the land, sky, waters, and all creatures you have made. We pray for your wisdom for all who live on this earth that we may nurture and preserve the gifts you have given us for today and for future generations.

Gracious Lord, hear us, we pray

*The Celebrant adds a concluding collect.
The Confession of sin is omitted in Easter season.*

THE PEACE

Celebrant The peace of the Lord be always with you.
People And also with you.

*We shake hands and greet each other with a sign of God's peace.
Please, feel free to leave your seat!*

THE DOXOLOGY #400

Representatives of the congregation bring the people's offerings to the Celebrant.

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow,
Praise him, all creatures here below,
Alleluia, Alleluia.

Praise him above, ye heavenly host,
Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.
O praise Him, O praise Him,
Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia.

GREAT THANKSGIVING

The people remain standing.

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give our thanks and praise.

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth. But chiefly are we bound to praise you for the glorious resurrection of your Son Jesus Christ our Lord; for he is the true Paschal Lamb, who was given for us, and has taken away the sin of the world. By his death he has destroyed death, and by his rising to life again he has won for us everlasting life.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

SANCTUS S-129

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might,

Heaven and earth are full of your glory.

Hosanna in the highest.

Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord.

Hosanna in the highest.

The people kneel or are seated. The Celebrant continues.

Holy and gracious God: In your infinite love you made us for yourself; and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and Father of all. He stretched out his arms upon the cross, and offered himself in obedience to your will, a perfect sacrifice for the whole world. On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me." After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for all for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Christ has died.

Christ is risen.

Christ will come again.

We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, O God, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling his death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts. Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in him. Sanctify us also that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace; and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom. All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ: By whom, and with whom, and in whom, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever. Amen.

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,
Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

BREAKING OF THE BREAD

A period of silence is kept.

Celebrant Alleluia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us;

People Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia.

Celebrant The Gifts of God for the People of God.

FRACTION ANTHEM S-163

Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world:
have mercy on us.

Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world:
have mercy on us.

Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world:
grant us peace.

This is the table of Jesus Christ, who welcomes everyone. You may drink from the chalice or dip your bread in the cup. If you'd prefer a blessing, please cross your arms over your chest. Young children are welcome to receive. Gluten-free wafers are available; let the priest know. Note that there are several steps up to the altar rail; please signal to an usher if you wish to have communion brought to you in your seat.

Easter Season @ St. Andrew's

LITURGY

For the season of Easter, we return to our alleluias and silver chalices after the spare simplicity of Lent. Our liturgical prayers at Communion for this season are from the 1979 Book of Common Prayer. The prayers of the people were composed by Laurel Roberts, Wes Rohrer, Anthony Crisafio, and Sara Irwin. Our Sunday 8am and Wednesday noon services will run through the Fifth Week of Easter (concluding by Memorial Day Weekend). Easter season is 7 weeks, ending on the Feast of Pentecost (June 8).

EDUCATION

Our Thursday morning zoom group, "Growth in the Spirit," will be reading Short Stories by Jesus: The Enigmatic Parables of a Controversial Rabbi by Amy-Jill Levine for Easter season, beginning on May 1 and concluding at the end of June. Contact Wes Rohrer at wmrn@pitt.edu if you would like to join.

Our Sunday 9am Study will be looking at the resurrection appearances of Jesus in a more traditional Bible study format, beginning on April 27 and wrapping up on June 1. Come for one or all study meetings; the full schedule will be included in the Weekly Update.

Church School continues until May 18 when we finish this program year with a family picnic on the lawn after church. Children ages 4 to 12 can join us for Vacation Bible School, June 2-4 from 5:30 to 7:00. Dinner will be provided each evening. This year's theme is Saints.

OUTREACH

For the Easter season, we are focusing on two of our outreach ministries: The Neighborhood Academy and Treasure House Fashions. The Neighborhood Academy is a faith-based, college-preparatory academy established to provide excellence in education and character development for low income students from 6th to 12th grades. All of their students are accepted at and go to college. This year, twenty-five seniors are preparing for graduation, and an "angel tree" in Brooks Hall allows us to make donations of $25, $50, or $150 toward the $150 gift cards we give each senior. In July and August, we will prepare backpacks filled with school supplies for all of their students in partnership with other congregations. We also restock their in-school support pantry three times a year. Treasure House Fashions provides gently used clothing and accessories to women in crisis or transition. Treasure House is the "closet" for over 60 local agencies, whose clients receive coupons to shop for whatever kind of clothes they need in a boutique setting. Their resale location at 7507 McKnight Rd also funds their operations-all shoppers welcome! Groups from St. Andrew's have helped prepare the donated clothing for sale and have worked as personal shoppers for groups of customers from agencies. Please contact Terry Northcutt at lnorthcutt@gmail.com if you are interested in getting involved!

Welcome to Saint Andrew's!

Please fill out a newcomer card if you're here for the first time. Put it in the offering plate, or give it to the clergy.

About our service: This 10am service is the Holy Eucharist (or "Holy Communion" or "Mass"). Our 8am service meets in the chapel and is a quiet and contemplative spoken service using similar prayers to this one.

Restrooms: For the restrooms, please exit the church at the front pulpit side door. Restrooms (with changing tables) are down the hall on the right. An all-gender restroom is at the top of the stairs to your right; it is also accessible by elevator.

The Episcopal Church: St Andrew's is part of the Episcopal Diocese of Pittsburgh, which extends south to West Virginia, north to the perimeter of Butler County, and as far east as Somerset. Our diocesan bishop is The Rt. Rev. Ketlen Solak. The head of the Episcopal Church in the US is the Most Rev. Sean Rowe. We are part of the global Anglican Communion, with congregations in 160 countries.

Welcome, children! Children and infants (including all their shrieks and gurgles) are warmly welcomed at St Andrew's and are invited to use the resources at the front left of the nave. Please return any used toys to the bins after church. We have kids' programs during the 10am service (with a special children's sermon on the first Sunday of the month), but all children are always welcome in worship as well.

FIRST LESSON

Acts 9:36-43

Now in Joppa there was a disciple whose name was Tabitha, which in Greek is Dorcas. She was devoted to good works and acts of charity. At that time she became ill and died. When they had washed her, they laid her in a room upstairs. Since Lydda was near Joppa, the disciples, who heard that Peter was there, sent two men to him with the request, "Please come to us without delay." So Peter got up and went with them, and when he arrived, they took him to the room upstairs. All the widows stood beside him, weeping and showing tunics and other clothing that Dorcas had made while she was with them. Peter put all of them outside, and then he knelt down and prayed. He turned to the body and said, "Tabitha, get up." Then she opened her eyes, and seeing Peter, she sat up. He gave her his hand and helped her up. Then calling the saints and widows, he showed her to be alive. This became known throughout Joppa, and many believed in the Lord. Meanwhile, he stayed in Joppa for some time with a certain Simon, a tanner.

Reader The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

PSALM 23

¹ The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not be in want.

² He makes me lie down in green pastures and leads me beside still waters.

³ He revives my soul and guides me along right pathways for his Name's sake.

⁴ Though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I shall fear no evil; for you are with me; your rod and your staff, they comfort me.

⁵ You spread a table before me in the presence of those who trouble me; you have anointed my head with oil, and my cup is running over.

⁶ Surely your goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life, and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

SECOND LESSON

Revelation 7:9-17

After this I looked, and there was a great multitude that no one could count, from every nation, from all tribes and peoples and languages, standing before the throne and before the Lamb, robed in white, with palm branches in their hands. They cried out in a loud voice, saying, "Salvation belongs to our God who is seated on the throne and to the Lamb!" And all the angels stood around the throne and around the elders and the four living creatures, and they fell on their faces before the throne and worshiped God, singing, "Amen! Blessing and glory and wisdom and thanksgiving and honor and power and might be to our God forever and ever! Amen." Then one of the elders addressed me, saying, "Who are these, robed in white, and where have they come from?" I said to him, "Sir, you are the one who knows." Then he said to me, "These are they who have come out of the great ordeal; they have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb. For this reason they are before the throne of God and worship him day and night within his temple, and the one who is seated on the throne will shelter them. They will hunger no more and thirst no more; the sun will not strike them, nor any scorching heat, for the Lamb at the center of the throne will be their shepherd, and he will guide them to springs of the water of life, and God will wipe away every tear from their eyes.”

THE GOSPEL John 10:22-30

Celebrant The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

At that time the Festival of the Dedication took place in Jerusalem. It was winter, and Jesus was walking in the temple, in the portico of Solomon. So the Jews gathered around him and said to him, “How long will you keep us in suspense? If you are the Messiah, tell us plainly.” Jesus answered, “I have told you, and you do not believe. The works that I do in my Father’s name testify to me, but you do not believe because you do not belong to my sheep. My sheep hear my voice. I know them, and they follow me. I give them eternal life, and they will never perish. No one will snatch them out of my hand. My Father, in regard to what he has given me, is greater than all, and no one can snatch them out of the Father’s hand. The Father and I are one.”
